VOL. III. NO. 255.

CHICAGO, TUESDAY, OCTOBER 26, 1897.

PRICE, 5 CENTS

LIEUT. COL. MCGUIGAN'S DAY.

B. J. Johnston's gray colt Paul Griggs won a lucky race from Macy at Harlem yesterday. Both carried 100 pounds at a mile. Macy under Wilhite was the favorite and carried a stable commission of $500 at 7 to 5. Instead of going out with the speedy favorite he was restrained behind Paul Griggs to a slow beginning, the quarter in 26 seconds, half in 51 and three quarters in 1:54. When asked to get up Macy could not do so and Paul Griggs won with a bit left and by three parts of a length.

After the race Mr. Schorr declared his willingness to bet that Macy can at any named time run a mile in 1:40 with 100 pounds up.

Lieut.-Col. McGuigan and his crowd—"Kid" Rogers and the Applegates—had a good speculative day. McGuigan started Hazeldean, Bannockburn and Moncreith. Hazeldean bled and had to be pulled up; but the other pair scored.

Bannockburn was backed heavily around even money to win the fourth race. The best he had to beat was Pacemaker, Fred Broens and St. Alfonses D. He got away in the first flight and, keeping within striking distance to the stretch, went to the front and won with something left at the finish.

Moncreith was in the nine furlong race, fifth on the card, with Charley Christy, Muskalonge & Co. He opened at 3 to 1, advanced a point and was then backed down to 3 to 1. Tommy Burns rode him. Charley Christy was the best, but Wilhite handled him like an amateur and was beaten by a neck. At the head of the stretch Charley Christy was half a length to the good and seemed to be winning, but when Moncreith got to him Wilhite blundered and Moncreith won.

Mon Bijou was a false 8 to 5 chance for the opening race. She ran a bad race and finished third. Lady Cordell at 8 to 1, far too long a price, won easily from Henry Ormsby.

The second event fell to Flo Honeydew, a 20 to 1 chance, and Topmast, well played, captured the sixth.

HAWTHORNE CHANGES HANDS.

The Hawthorne track has been leased for five years from the officials in control of the Chicago Racing Association by George Rose & Co. and for that term, from January 1 next, will be operated by that syndicate.

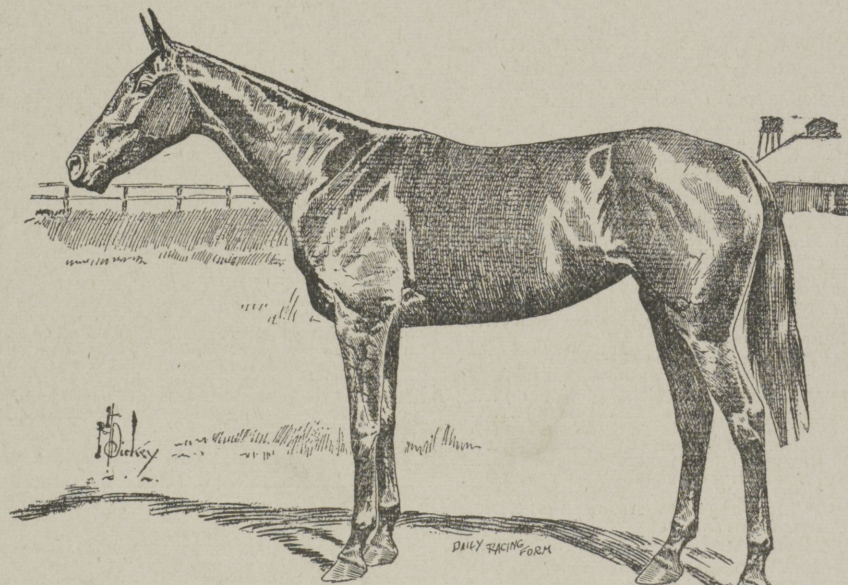

WINDSOR TO WIND UP.

DETROIT, Mich., Oct. 25.—There will be no more racing at Windsor. Tuesday's card is not likely to be run off.

BAKER & GENTRY WINNINGS.

CINCINNATI, O., Oct. 25.—The following table shows the winnings of the individual members of Baker & Gentry's string of horses this season, this firm leading the winning owners on the local tracks this year, Latonia, Newport and Oakley. The total amount won foots up over $33,000, about $30,000 of which was won at the three racing parks above named. As a silent partner of the firm Col. Thomas M. Green, a wealthy live stock capitalist, is a resident of this city, the stable's triumphs is a home victory and it is the first time in racing history a local string ever heads the list of winning owners on Cincinnati's tracks. The stable's earnings this year are also considerably over those won by the horses of the late Byron McClelland, who headed the list of winning owners, on these three courses last year. The table follows:

Horses.	Won.	Amt.	Horses.	Won.	Amt.
Simon W.....	10	$6895	Calculator.....	2	$ 615
Lou Bramble.....	10	7825	Rosinante.....	1	575

SCOGGAN BROS.' FLORA LOUISE, B. F. 2, BY FLORIST—MARY LOUISE.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

From reliable information it is learned that all the Canadian tracks will drop the fifteen-day limit next year. Each track will give a fifteen day meeting in the spring and a meeting of like length in the fall. Under this plan no track will have over thirty day's racing during the year. It is thought that Highland Park will also adopt the fifteen-day limit.

New York reports declare that W. B. Jennings has been engaged to train a band of horses for Mr. J. B. Haggin and race it at San Francisco the coming winter and in the East next summer. The report is probably untrue.

It is said that James T. Rowe and A. J. Joyner will race in partnership next season and that Rowe will do the training.

Ex-Secretary S. M. Leake, of the Pacific Coast Jockey Club, is in town on business.

Much of the success of this firm's horses this year has been due to the skillful handling of trainer Buck Franklin, who, out of seventeen horses sent to the post, has won races with fifteen and money with every member of the string. Every two-year-old he developed was a winner, including two really good youngsters, Uarda and Don Quixote. With a crippled maiden, Fleischmann, he beat the mighty Ornament in one of the big events of the year, and with an old horse like Simon W he has won ten races, and with a filly of the second two-year-old class he captured the rich Latonia Oaks, defeating White Frost. The Baker & Gentry lot of 1898 will be nineteen strong, the places of Oscuro, Filibuster, Charina and Con Reagan, all of which have been sold, being filled by the very promising three-year-old Oelian, a brother to Eolian, not raced this year as a two-year-old owing to an accident, and five coming two-year-olds, as follows:

Chestnut colt, half brother to Lou Bramble, by Prince Royal—Lou Dudley.

Chestnut colt, by Pardee—Sophy Hardy.

Chestnut filly, half-sister to McLight, by Longfellow—Longalight.

Bay filly, sister to Rosinante and Don Quixote, by Charaxus—Ethie.

Chestnut filly, by Hayden Edwards—Harebell.
